Volunteer Spotlight: Sheryl

What do you do at Cozy Cat Cottage?
l do a few various tasks outside the shelter. l'm the proud lead volunteer of our amazing, dedicated group of volunteers that care for our felines, while waiting for their furever homes, at the Dublin Petsmart.
l foster (have for 20+ years), take the recycling collected by our amazing supporters, and pick up donations.
l was introduced to CCC through a friend after l moved to Dublin and started fostering while l was still working. After retiring l got involved with the Petsmart team, recycling and donation pickup.

What is your favorite part about volunteering at Cozy Cat Cottage?
l LOVE, LOVE fostering. l'm a proud foster Mama when l see pictures of my Mama's and/or kittens go home.
But, my most favorite part is the friendships l have gained through volunteering for Cozy Cat Cottage.

What cat at Cozy Cat do you identify with the most and why?
Since l'm not at the shelter on a regular frequency it's a bit difficult to get to know the kitties but l would identify with any kitty that likes to play, have fun, be silly, makes people laugh and loves frozen margaritas!

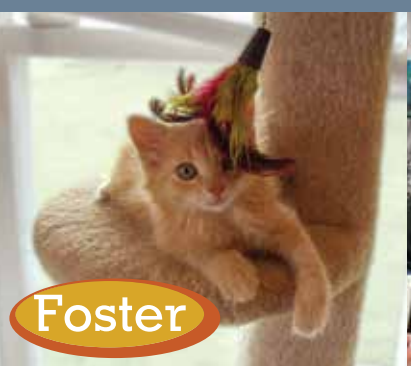

Tell us an interesting fact about yourself!
l'm a long time Chicago Cubs and Green Bay Packers fan!

Wonka

The look: concerned.
The attitude: more concerned.
The personality: full of concern.
Wonka has been on a search for a world of imagination, but so far in life, he's only found concern. Before he found his way to Cozy Cat Cottage, he was concerned about where he was going to find a meal. Then, when he wandered into someone's yard, he was concerned that the resident cats were going to beat him up. Now that he's at Cozy Cat Cottage, he's concerned that he'll never find his world of pure imagination.

The humans at Cozy Cat Cottage are concerned for his health. He was diagnosed with Chronic Kidney Disease when he was only 10 months old, and we're afraid that his world of pure imagination is going to stay imaginary. He eats the Kidney food he's supposed to eat that makes him feel better. However, Wonka will be able to live a happy, comfortable life with someone who takes him to the vet regularly and makes sure that he sticks to his kidney food diet. Are you the perfect person to show him a world full of pure imagination?

Then & Meow

Featuring... The "Fruits"

Rasperry, Guava, & Kumquat

If you remember Jammy from last month's edition of Then & Meow, you'll remember that she was separated from her day old kittens on accident. Well, this month we wanted to focus on her kittens!

When they first arrived at the shelter, they were very cold and very hungry. They didn't even have their eyes open yet! We were all very worried that Jammy wouldn't even recognize her own children.

Thankfully, Jammy knew who these strange little kittens were right away and welcomed back into her arms like no time had passed.

We were so happy to see her again! We all went into a foster home to be looked after by our amazing foster family. We're so grateful to Cozy Cat Cottage for meeting our rescuer at the shelter late at night so we could be saved and reunited with our mama. Now, we have the chance to have a home of our own!

Hard at work?

This month's question is answered by Cleo. She's got lots of opinions that she loves to share!

Ask the cats!

The only advice you'll ever need, answered by a resident of Cozy Cat Cottage! To submit your question, email agalbraith@cozycatcottage.com

Question: Cleo, you're so pretty but isn't it true that long haired cats require a lot of maintenance and shed a lot?

Cleo's Answer: My fur doesn't make me high maintenance, my personality does! Sure, long haired cats may need an extra brushing or two to help us prevent matting but I do a good job of keeping my coat pristine by myself, thank you! And, as for shedding, you'd be lucky to carry around reminders of the time I willingly spent with you. Every cat sheds but that doesn't mean that my fabulous fibers end up on you more than any other cat. You'd be lucky to have a gorgeous girl like me for your best friend!
